Biographical information

Patricia Walker Shaw, an insurance executive, was born in Little Rock, Arkansas, on July 26, 1939, to A. Maceo and Harriette Ish Walker. After graduation from Oakwood High School in Poughkeepsie, New York (a Quaker operated college preparatory school) in 1956, she enrolled at Fisk University in Nashville, Tennessee and graduated cum laude receiving a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business Administration in 1961. She also attended the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business Administration in 1961. In 1962 she was granted a Teacher Certificate from the Graduate School of Education at Tennessee State University. She attended the University of Tennessee Graduate School of Social Work in 1966. Mrs. Shaw resided in Memphis with her husband Harold R. Shaw, Sr. and son Harold R. Shaw, Jr. She passed away June 30, 1985.

Mrs. Shaw was employed by Tri-State Bank of Memphis in 1958-1959 as an Accounting Trainee; by the Universal Life Insurance Company in 1961 as a clerk in the Underwriting Department; by the Illinois State Department of Public Welfare as a case worker in 1961-1962; by the Tennessee State Department of Public welfare as a welfare worker in the Division of Children Services in 1963-66; as a keypuncher verifier for Universal Life Insurance Company in 1966 and was promoted to Chief Clerk of the Lapse Division of the Data Processing Department in 1967. In 1970 she was promoted Supervisor of the Lapse Division of the Data Processing Department. She has received successive promotions at Universal Life, including Supervisor-Cashier in the Accounting Department in 1971, Assistant Vice President, Assistant Controller, Research Analyst in 1971, and the position of Vice President--Associate Controller in 1974.

Among her professional accomplishments, Mrs. Shaw has completed seven of the eight required courses leading to the professional designation of fellow of the Life Management Institute. She has completed the Dale Carnegie course in Human Relations and Effective Speaking. She is a member of the Memphis Home Office Underwriters Association. She was selected to participate on several special committees within the framework of Universal Life's problem-solving policies and practices; and has completed two studies with regard to Mortality Rates and Diversification of Industrial Policy Portfolio.

Over and above her involvement in the field of life insurance, Mrs. Shaw is committed to community involvement. This commitment is manifested by her social and civic memberships. Her social memberships include Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.; the United Sisters and Associates, Inc.; the Panel of American Women, Inc.; and Vice President of Links, Inc. Mrs. Shaw served on the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, to which she was elected in 1974. During that same year Mrs. Shaw became the first black woman on the Board of Commissioners of the Memphis Light, Gas, and Water Division. She was also a member of the Board of Directors of the Memphis Volunteer Placement Programs. Mrs. Shaw helped others as a member of Mississippi Boulevard Christian Church, People United to Save Humanity, the Young Women's Christian Association, and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Mrs. Shaw has accepted many civic and social duties including the Business Advisory Council—Southwestern University, the Research Committee—National Insurance Association, the Advisory Council—University of Tennessee Center for the Health Sciences.

Scope and contents

The collection is divided into two series. Series 1 is Personal and Family. The first folder contains resumes and other biographical information relating specifically to Patricia Walker Shaw. The second folder contains family information. The third folder contains general correspondence, and invitations. Included in the general correspondence (folder three) are letters from M. E. Greener and Michael Grehl in regards to United Way campaigns, Patricia Walker Shaw's acceptance into "Who's Who Among Black Americans", and a letter from Congressman Harold Ford explaining his voting record for the local Memphis business community and asking for voter input.

Series 2 is Subject Files, and the folders are divided according to papers relating to Mrs. Shaw's business and civic activities. This series contains items related to educational programs, items for Shaw's time on the Memphis Light, Gas, and Water Board of Commissioners, NEOMark materials, Panel of American Women items, items relating to United Nations' "Zionism Equals Racism" Resolution and the response from the National Conference of Christians and Jews, the manuscript for Brock Peter's biography, and Mrs. Shaw's activities with the Universal Life Insurance Company including correspondence relating to advertising, sales, and public service. Series 2 continues in Box 2 with more Universal Life Insurance Company related materials. This includes a 1954 African American magazine featuring Beale Street. Folder four contains photographs of Patricia Walker Shaw. Folder five contains newspaper clippings relating to Patricia Walker Shaw in Memphis, as well as featuring Universal Life Insurance Company's meeting in Charlottesville, VA. The oversized folder contains a number of newspapers, an organizational chart for Memphis Light, Gas, and Water, and an actuary table used by Universal Life Insurance Company.
