Biographical information

Carl E. Heinemann was born in Hot Springs, Arkansas, on March 19, 1907, the son of Frederick Emanuel Heinemann (1850-1918) and Belle Zona McClendon Heinemann (born 1873-1946). He had two siblings: Victor Frederick (1904-1985) and Melba Louise (1909-1982). Carl married Irvane Bradley (1906-1993) in 1934 and had three children. On his graduation from high school, Heinemann joined the postal service. He served in the U. S. Navy from April 21, 1944, until his discharge on October 7, 1945. He returned to the postal service and retired on June 30, 1972, after 45 years' service. At that time, he was Postmaster of Hot Springs, Arkansas. He died on December 26, 1973.

Scope and contents

The collection comprises letters, photographs, publications, and newspaper clippings. The bulk of the collection consists of letters written to Heinemann by his wife Irvane during the period April 22 through August 8, 1944. The letters deal with Irvane's activities with their three children and other relatives and her plans to join her husband in San Diego, California. The collection includes other letters and copies of some family documents.
