Administrative Information

Nelson, Lanphier and Company were cotton factors and commission merchants located on 56 Carondelet St. in New Orleans, Louisiana during the late 1800s. Amongst those involved with the company were Stephen O. Nelson, his brother Thomas A. Nelson, and J. S. Lanphier.

Scope and contents

Business correspondence of Nelson, Lanphier and Co., cotton factors located at 56 Carondelet St. in New Orleans, Louisiana, to T. A. Nelson and Co., Memphis, Tennessee. The letters primarily pertain to the cotton business, which includes cotton shipments, the cotton crop in the fields, the state of the New Orleans cotton market and the money market. The writer refers occasionally to politics in Kentucky, Tennessee, and Mississippi that might affect business.

In addition, the collection is comprised of several business and accounting documents belonging to Nelson, Lanphier and Co. It also contains two insurance policies, one of which is for an unknown party issued in 1890, and another issued by Hernando Insurance Co. of Memphis for City Oil Works of Memphis in 1884.
